

Du bist nie allein unterwegs

Our AIESEC members in both your home and host countries will make sure to be there every step of the way — before leaving and while you are abroad.

Logistics Support

We ensure you get the right visa, arrival pick-up information before you travel and departure instructions when going back.

Learning Experience

We set clear expectations, provide cultural preparation and facilitate learning spaces before, during and after your experience.

Safe Living Conditions

Life and health insurance is mandatory. You will get information about accommodation and basic living costs before departure.

Clear Job Description

We accompany you to the workplace on the first day and ensure your job description, goals and working hours are as expected.
